

Tools for Water Utilities to Prevent Algal Blooms

May 21, 2014
9:30 am – 3:00 pm

Clarion Hotel, Salon A
Shepherdstown, West Virginia

9:30	Registration
10:00	Welcome and Introductions	Collin Burrell, DC Department of the Environment
10:15	Blue-Green Algae Overview	Lesley D'Anglada, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)
10:55	Utility Experiences Preventing and Managing Algae	Rick Davis, City of Romney, West Virginia  Open Discussion Facilitator: Bill Toomey, WV Dept. of Health and Human Resources
11:30	Lunch
12:15	Algae Monitoring Efforts within the Potomac Basin	Jim Hedrick, WV Dept. of Natural Resources Patricia Brady, MD Department of the Environment
1:05	Strategies for Reducing the Chances of an Algae Outbreak	Frank Schneider, PA State Conservation Commission Matt Monroe, WV Dept. of Agriculture
1:55	Resources for Identifying, Mitigating, and Preventing Algal Blooms	John Rhoderick, MD Dept. of Agriculture Matt Monroe, WV Dept. of Agriculture Marjorie Copeland, EPA
2:45	Wrap up	Collin Burrell, DC Department of the Environment
3:00	Adjourn	